Brenda,

I don't even know how to start this! Lol

I had been eyeing your skincare products at the American Health Food store near Houston for a while. I get my Reflexology treatments there almost weekly since January. I had been so curious about your products but never asked any of the employees about it.

I have had problem skin for the past 10 years (I'm 28 now) and have fought with adult acne. It became very severe the year I turned 21 which finally died down around 25. But that was after I had spent more money than I ever thought possible on nutritional supplements, every high dollar skin care line you can think of, and many very very expensive IPL laser treatments. But my face has still never been totally clear and I can never go without makeup or wear just mineral powder. It has markedly improved since I started my Reflexology treatments in January but it seemed like I was still missing some piece. I am about to run out of the little bit of benzoyl peroxide I have left. And thought last week it would be really nice if I could not have to go to the dermatologist and could find something to use that actually worked and was good for my skin. Last week I had the weirdest and worst breakout I've had in 5 months. Any pimples I get are always white heads but these were small ones all over the place which had never really happened before. And I was really upset b/c next week is my 28th bday and we have big plans.

Finally on Monday while I was at the store i asked the clerk about your products. She raved about them and I figured what the heck what's one more product line right? but I didn't expect too much and didn't want to get my hopes up. She also gave me a booklet with info on all of your products which included customer reviews. I was really impressed that they were actually real and that you scanned the original letter heads to show that. So I was interested to see if I would notice anything with them.

It has now been 4 days and I've been using the cleanser, toner, zit blast, and skin drink,.....& OMG!!!!!!! I have NEVER SEEN THESE RESULTS WITH ANY OTHER PRODUCTS I HAVE EVER PUT ON MY FACE! I am absolutely FLOORED! in just 4 days my skins looks beautiful! It's almost all the way clear and RADIANT! I have always had oily but dry skin. I can actually see that your products are helping to REPAIR the skin not just keep the blemishes at bay! I am going back today to buy some more of your line and am can't wait to continue to see the changes in my skin. I wish you would come out with a mineral makeup line that could do the same thing! Lol. I will keep you posted and thank you for making me feel like it may not be a lot cause and I can finally put my best face forward :)
