Dear Brenda,

First off, I love how Evangelistic you are about these products and how willing you are to visit in depth...

You have such knowledge and passion...Thank you for taking the time to talk about your line when I was unable to access you on the web.

You and I spoke and you recommended various creams and vitamins and I decided to gamble and go for it...as a birthday gift to myself.

I am high energy, in real estate sales and step mother of 4kids
 AND I work out alot...I want to stay lean, energetic and fit.

My complaints were mostly acne, energy, clarity...etc.
 I had also been battling off and on with Crohns, but we didn't really touch on that.

I am now on my 2nd bottles of both the Mega Cleanse/XL and am regular, without tummy aches/ burning /pain in my lower left side AND no "pot belly pig" poof in my lower abs

AND I've lost about 5pds (which I have always found it sooo hard to do) and am a muscular 5'7", 135pds!

MORE IMPORTANTLY..

... My dull, broken out skinned has made a total 180 change these past 60days.

<My skin is clearing more everyday... and breakouts are only during hormonal cycles, but I head that off with Acne 911

There's one thing I could NEVER wear on my face..

SUNBLOCK...of any kind!

It would cause reactions, zits, plugged pores..

Absolutely LOVE the Day Protection w Sunblock and the Renewal Complex at nite. I start my day very simple w washing and the fabulous Intensive Renewal Toner (boy does that even my complexion out on contact!)

Then mushroom trilogy/then Day Protection..

Im not sure what exactly of the above mentioned "cocktail" is clearing my skin...But its REALLY looking awesome!!

Bright and shiny like a woman 10-15yrs younger!

A lady friend at the gym the other day said,"you don't have any make up on do you? You should go around more without it!"

_ O M G!!!_

Best compliment in years...

I have tried E V E R Y T H I N G to stop breakouts!!

I just turned 45yrs last week and this regimen is what I wanted as a birthday goal ...Beautiful SKIN!

~ No more embarrassing, distracting marks on my face...making me feel unconfident and self conscious!

Thank You !! Natalie
