Brenda & Jack,

Thank you again for introducing me to the Total Digestion Probiotic!

I've struggled with acid reflux for the last few years and never really took any steps for improvement. The Total Digestion Probiotic has eliminated the acid reflux I would wake up with and other abdominal discomfort I experienced throughout the day.

Aside from not waking up with acid reflux and other abdominal pain, I've noticed a significant improvement in my overall mood! I didn't expect treating the other symptoms would have these downstream effects.

Thank you again for all the work you both do and helping improve my life and the lives of so many others!

All the best,
